About Daydream

Daydream is a 24-hour game jam, where highschoolers* from all around the world can come together in one of over one hundred cities to create games, friendships, and lasting connections.

Each event is teen-led, partially funded and coached by The Hack Foundation, a 501(c)(3) non-profit that aims to empower young coders globally. They have a track record of hosting and running multiple successful global and in-person events, like:

- Undercity, a five-day hackathon at GitHub HQ,
- The Hacker Zephyr, the longest hackathon on a train from Vermont to Los Angeles,
- Trail, a hike across the Pacific Crest Trail,
- Epoch, a New Year's Day hackathon with its flagship in Delhi NCR,
- and more.

* anyone <=18 and not enrolled in a college or similar post-school program
(this excludes JEE/NEET and other similar test prep)
